

On the Green

EDWARD MINER GALLAUDEY MEMORIAL LIBRARY
GALLAUDEY COLLEGE
WASHINGTON, D. C.

VOL. III, NO. 6
November 7, 1973

CAC TO SPONSOR ROCK GOSPEL

On Tuesday, November 20, the Auditorium will be alive with the soul stirring sights and sounds of the Rock Gospel. Conceived by Dan Pokorny and Rudy Gawlik four years ago, the Rock Gospel is a unique interpretation of contemporary music in the language of signs.

The Sons of Thunder, a rock group from Rockville, Maryland, accompany the singing signers in songs of peace and protest, social commentary and criticism, loneliness and longing, which are relevant to both hearing and deaf audiences.

The performance, which is sponsored by the Cultural Affairs Committee, will be at 8 p.m.

General admission is $1.50. Student tickets are $1.00. Tickets can be purchased from Maria Johnson in the Visitors Center, Chapel Hall, on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays.

DON'T DELAY! TICKETS ARE SELLING QUICKLY!

NEW VIDEOTAPES IN THE LIBRARY

- #144 Development of the Child: Cognition
- #165 Rosemary's Baby
- #166 Up the Down Staircase
- #167 A Man for All Seasons
- #168 Social Class in America
- #169 Support Your Local Sheriff
- #170 Only One Earth
- #171 Viva Max

WANTED: RESEARCH PROJECTS

The College Committee on Research has a moderate sum of money which it would like to award to a faculty member(s) to enable him or her to engage in some research.

Please submit a one or two page outline of your proposed project so that the committee will be able to make the award.

The deadline for proposals is November 30, and proposals should be turned in to room 151, Hall Memorial Building. For further information, please contact Clarence Williams.

BE SURE NOT TO MISS...

...The Gallaudet College Theatre's fall production, "Macbeth," on November 9, 10, 16 and 17. All performances are at 8 p.m. in the Auditorium. Box office hours:

November 7-10	2-8 p.m.
November 12-15	2-5 p.m.
November 16-17	2-8 p.m.

...The Bisons challenge Catholic University on our home turf, Saturday at 1 p.m.

...watercolors and acrylics by deaf artist, Robert Freiman, on display in Chapel Hall.

...the Hispanic Society's display in the Gallaudet Room in the Library of the art and literature of Spain and Portugal which was prepared by the deaf members of the Society's staff.

...the opportunity to get some exercise. The gym is open to faculty and staff for tennis, badminton, swimming and volleyball on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays from 12:15 to 1 p.m.

AMONG OURSELVES

The Acoustical Society of America has elected James Pickett a Fellow of the Society "for his research on speech communication by persons with normal and impaired hearing."...Mary Woods and Judy Cox recently attended the Middle Atlantic Regional Library Federation meeting in Atlantic City....John Hartman has been named purchasing administrator....Marianne Walker and Addie West, have taken positions at MSSD, and Gary Ries will join the custodial staff at the College on Monday....S.M. Bushnaq recently spoke to juniors and seniors at the New York School for the Deaf on the importance of an education in today's highly industrialized society.

POSITIONS AVAILABLE

BUYER: Purchasing

INTERPRETER/TYPIST: Kendall School

FISCAL ADMINISTRATOR: Kendall School

CLERK-TYPIST: Educational Technology

ASSISTANT LIBRARIAN (Full-Time/Temporary):
Library

DIRECTOR OF SUMMER PROGRAMS: Center for Continuing Education

STAFF NURSE (Part-Time): Student Health
Services (Kendall School)

CLERK-TYPIST: Counseling and Placement
Center

For further information, contact the Office of Non-Faculty Personnel.

TICKETS ON SALE FOR MISS GALLAUDET PAGEANT

The second Miss Gallaudet Pageant will be held on January 24-26, 1974, in the Gallaudet College Auditorium. The Pageant will feature guest star, Joe Velez, a former actor with the National Theatre of the Deaf, and Ann Billington, the current Miss Deaf America. Gil Eastman will be master of ceremonies.

Tickets can be purchased at the Student Union Building information booth Monday through Friday from 3-6 p.m. Tickets can also be ordered from Terry Hostin through campus mail.

Admission to the preliminaries on January 24 and 25 is $1.00. Admission to the finals on January 26 is $5.00.

WHERE IS THE CLASS OF '73

The 124 members of the 1973 graduating class, according to the Counseling and Placement Center, are involved in the following activities:

33% Graduate School

19% Education (instructors, residence counselors, etc.)

16% Government Employment

12% Private Industry
6% Rehabilitation/Social Services
4% Homemakers
3% Currently not seeking employment
2% Did not use placement services
5% Traveling, not seeking employment

CANDLEMAKING DEMONSTRATION TO BE SIGNED

"Learning to Do," a program sponsored by the University of Maryland Cooperative Extension Services will feature a signed demonstration of candlemaking by Ruth Peterson on WBAL-TV, Channel 11, in Baltimore. The 30 minute show will be taped next week and aired in December.

Linda Darnell will also be a guest on the program and will speak about classes and activities available to deaf adults through the Center for Continuing Education.

BITS AND PIECES

--Alaska Senator, Mike Gavel, has introduced legislation which will allow phone companies to provide free or reduced-rate long distance telephone service to individuals who are deaf or hearing impaired.

--The Environmental Protection Agency has proposed regulatory action which will limit the noise from interstate trucks and buses by as much as 10 db.

--Twenty Vistaphones have been installed on the campus of the National Technical Institute in Rochester. Primarily to be used by faculty and staff members, the Vistaphones, which use a small TV screen, will be available on some parts of the campus for student use.

ON THE GREEN is published by the Office of Alumni and Public Relations each week for the faculty and staff of Gallaudet College. Call 741 or TTY 480 if you have information for the next issue. Deadline: Tuesday at 12 noon.

Judy Bortner, editor

Judy